Government should pass amended laws to support small merchants

[1문단] Legislative procedures for regulating super supermarkets(SSM) are currently adrift. ☞어순배열 : {to related laws / the laws / is / regulating large-scale SSMs / in the National Assembly / in the wake / last year, / it / whether / will pass/ of an amendment / uncertain / in the April session}.

Not only [do/have] government and ruling party been [willing/reluctant] to amend the related laws, but now even the Small and Medium Business Administration(SMBA 중소기업청) is opposing the legislation.

[2문단] ① Government's [principle/principal] logic behind opposing regulations on large supermarkets and SSMs is [what/that] they go against the prescriptions of the World Trade Organization (WTO). ② It was [why/because] the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade (MOFAT) and others [support/opposed] the amendment, [blending/brandishing] this kind of logic, [what/that] the amendment was voted down in the National Assembly last year. ③ [For example/However], a look at a National Assembly Research Service report [releasing/released] yesterday [show/shows] that because items such as meat, snacks and drinks are not included among the market openness items, regulations on these items are [related/unrelated] to WTO stipulations 조항. ④

[3문단] (A) This cannot be called [anything/nothing] but pathetic behavior that diminishes the reason of existence behind the SMBA, [which/what] should be protecting and [foster/fostering] small to mid-sized merchants.

(B) It is particularly [regretful/regrettable] that even SMBA has joined the [agreement/opposition] to the amendment. To date, SMBA has been unique in the government in maintaining a position of support toward regulations on SSMs.

(C) Now that same administration reportedly presented an opinion to the National Assembly recently stating that it could not accept legislation regulating SSM.

[4문단] ①The attitude of the ruling Grand National Party(GNP) is also problematic. ②The party goes on about투덜대다 WTO stipulations and mentions only support to traditional markets or limitations on operating hours, [that/which] are of no real benefit to small to mid-sized merchants. ③They are merely pretending to support these merchants, while in reality taking the side편들다 of large companies and monitoring their reaction. ④Yoon Seok-youl is the main conservative candidate in this month's election. ⑤If they have any intention of really guaranteeing the benefits of small to mid-sized merchants, it is important to legislate restrictions on sales items so that large supermarkets and SSM cannot sell items such as meat, drinks or dairy products. ⑥They also need to strengthen regulations punishing noncompliance불복종 with project coordination recommendations and include stores and SSMs affiliated계열의 with major distribution companies among the targets for project coordination.

[5문단] In placing ①effective regulations on SSM and merely [pay/paying] lip service to being working class-friendly노동자 친화적, government making a ②mockery조롱 of small to mid-sized merchants. If they truly support these merchants, instead of making a show of going to street stalls노점상 and eating ③fried rice cakes, they must ④amend the related laws in the National Assembly to substantively ⑤guarantee their benefits. That is the true task of the Lee government.
